

Thursday 7th May 2020

Dear Parents/Carers

I hope you are all safe and well.

Update We are heading towards the early May bank holiday weekend with the same lockdown restrictions still in place at this point. We are hopeful that we will have a clearer idea of what the post-lockdown plans will be following the update from the Government this Sunday. We will provide more details of what this means for us here at St Paul's once we have this information.

VE Day Tomorrow, we commemorate VE Day with a very special bank holiday. This might not be the bank holiday we had hoped for but it is still an opportunity to remember and to celebrate.

Plymouth is supporting BBC Local Radio who are asking people to 'do their bit' and celebrate the anniversary from home by making their own special VE Day 'Great British Bunting' to display in their windows.

The BBC are inviting people to create their own bunting designs to put in their windows for Friday 8 May, and over the Bank Holiday weekend. It's an easy activity to do and provides an opportunity to talk about the history of World War II and commemorate the sacrifices of previous generations. VE Day bunting can be displayed alongside children's beautiful rainbow pictures for the NHS frontline heroes of today.

Home learning Thank you for the commitment you have shown to keeping your children's education going during this lockdown period. We are delighted that many of you have supported your children to complete learning packs and to engage in learning on Google Classroom. We would like you all to enjoy the bank holiday tomorrow so there will be no home learning set. In normal times, the children would have been enjoying a day off so we do not want tomorrow to be any different to any other bank holiday. I would also like to make sure that our teachers have a day off too! Everyone deserves a good rest before we start learning again on Monday. Our teaching team will be available again from 8.45am Monday to answer any queries you may have.

Please stay safe and well. You are all in our prayers.

With very best wishes

Mrs Dawn Potterton

Head Teacher

head@stpaulsplymouth.com